

The first plans were made bold and daring, sounded more like wishful thinking.

There was so much to be done...

... to improve epilepsy care in the country.

Big dreams made by people who were prepared to do whatever it took to reach the goal.

