

Navigating Life with Epilepsy

David C. Spencer, Oxford University Press

Table of Contents

About the AAN's NeurologyNow Book Series

Preface

I. Introduction [engagement and introduction of cases/patients who will appear throughout the book]

II. What is epilepsy?

a. General introduction and definitions

b. Seizure types

c. Epilepsy classification

III. How and why do seizures occur?

IV. Who develops epilepsy?

V. Establishing the diagnosis of epilepsy

a. A visit with the neurologist

i. A first seizure

ii. An established diagnosis

b. Testing

i. EEG

ii. Brain imaging

iii. Specialized testing

VI. Treatment of epilepsy

a. Non-pharmacologic approaches and first aid

b. Antiepileptic Medications

i. Choice of medication

ii. Adverse effects

c. Epilepsy surgery

d. Medical devices to treat epilepsy

e. Complementary and alternative medicine

f. Treatment in special populations

i. Adolescents

ii. Women

iii. Older adults

VII. Living with and Managing Epilepsy

a. Navigating the day-to-day [driving, work, legal issues, relationships]

b. Related brain conditions: cognitive problems, mood, anxiety, and more

c. Sudden Unexpected Death in Epilepsy (SUDEP)

d. Making your clinic visit successful

VIII. The future of epilepsy care

Glossary

Resources/Appendices/ Index